

The Trek 2016

7th and 8th September

In 2016 the Poets Trek will travel to Brewarrina where we will stay overnight at the newly established Beds on the Barwon.

Features of this years trek will include visits to Mount Oxley, the telling of the Sturts journey along the Bogan River, The Brewarrina Fish Traps, Cultural Museum, Campfire tales before returning to Bourke via Byrock.

The Trek will be led by Paul Roe. Artists along for the Trek include Andrew Hull, The Roweths, Graeme Gibson and Frank Povah.

The 2016 Poets Trek will depart at 8:30am on the 7th of September from the Bourke Wharf

The Trek will explore the story of Charles Sturt and his first visit to the area, discover more about the rich heritage of the Cobb and Co and learn on location about the stories and lives of Poets such as Ogilvie, Morant, Lawson and Davis.

For the first time the Trek will introduce the story of Oscar Hughon who wrote for the early Bourke paper in the 1860's.

FESTIVAL of a thousand STORIES

Numbers are limited for the 2016 Trek so if you would like to come along please book as early as possible. Place will only be guaranteed on the Trek once paid for.

- Price includes:
- Transportation
- All meals
- Accommodation
- Tour guide and accompanying artists

Cost $400 per person including transport or $350 per those tagging along in own vehicle.

All welcome. For further information call.

0268 721321